

WHAT I DO DURING THE DAY: I wear lots of different hats—mom of two adorable children ages 6 and 3, wife and owner of Two Chic Blvd. My day consists of getting my children off to school, running household errands and then working at my store until school gets out. The day ends with fixing dinner, getting children to bed and, finally, finishing store paperwork. A few days a month, I travel for buying trips to Dallas, Las Vegas and Los Angeles. I also spend lots of time preparing for trade shows in Texas and local Kansas City fundraisers such as Holiday Mart, Haute Market and Blue Valley Schools.

THE CLOTHES I'M WEARING: All come from my store. The top is Muchacha, the skinny jeans are Fresh Ink and my accessories include a Sisi Amber necklace, bronze bracelet, wedge boots and handbag.

I LOVE THIS OUTFIT BECAUSE: It represents my store and what I'm about - chic and trendy!

INSIDE MY CLOSET YOU'LL FIND: It has both old and new, starting with my sentimental items that will never leave my closet. These include my collection of vintage jewelry, my grandmother's fur wrap and my prom dress, which I wore with my now husband. As for the new, it's the latest and trendiest fashions from my store. I'm a "no-name label girl," but of course still "chic." You only have to love it for the season, and you don't feel guilty for what you spent on it. I'm big on accessorizing my outfit, which is one of my favorite things to do. In my opinion, it's not about the label, it's about how you look and feel in it!

I LOVE SOUTH JOHNSON COUNTY BECAUSE: It's like living in a big city with a small-town atmosphere. Coming from a small town, I knew all of my surroundings and was close to lots of people – just like in south Johnson County. It has great shopping, schools, restaurants and neighborhoods with outstanding people that I feel privileged to call my neighbors and friends.
